

When is an ounce of prevention worth more than a pound of cure?

When you logon to...

Help your students stay safe...
and win money for your school at the same time.

This year alone, one in every four children will be injured seriously enough to require medical attention. Often, these injuries are preventable. CodeRedRover.org is a brand new, child-privacy-friendly Web site created by Lowe's Home Safety Council, a nonprofit organization founded by Lowe's Home Improvement Warehouse with a vision of safer American homes.

Safety-made-fun activities for students. Lesson plans for teachers. Vital home safety information for parents. There is nothing to buy, no advertising to weed through. Plus, CodeRedRover.org game play lets students win cash to share with your school.
